1       1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

2              Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of 3              confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public 4              disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be 5              warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the 6              following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not 7              confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the 8              protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited 9              information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal 10             principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3, below, that this 11             Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under 12             seal; Civil Local Rules 141 and 141.1 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and 13             the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file 14             material under seal and/or a protective order.

15       2. DEFINITIONS

16       2.1     Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of 17             information or items under this Order.

18       2.2     “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of how 19             it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under 20             Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c).

21       2.3     Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel of Record and House 22             Counsel (as well as their support staff).

23       2.4     Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or 24             items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

25       2.5     Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of 26             the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among 27             28

1 other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in 2 disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

3       2.6     Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter 4 pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an 5 expert witness or as a consultant in this action.

6       2.7     House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this action.
7 House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

8       2.8     Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or 9 other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

10      2.9     Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party to 11 this action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have appeared 12 in this action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared 13 on behalf of that party.

14      2.10    Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, 15 employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their 16 support staffs).

17      2.11    Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or 18 Discovery Material in this action.

19      2.12    Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support 20 services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or 21 demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and 22 their employees and subcontractors.

23      2.13    Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as 24 "CONFIDENTIAL."

25      2.14    Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material 26 from a Producing Party.

27

28

1       3.     SCOPE

2              The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected 3 Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from 4 Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected 5 Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their 6 Counsel that might reveal Protected Material. However, the protections conferred by this 7 Stipulation and Order do not cover the following information: (a) any information that is 8 in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving Party or becomes part of the 9 public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of publication not 10 involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public record through 11 trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the 12 disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who 13 obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the 14 Designating Party. Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate 15 agreement or order.

16       4.     DURATION

17              Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations 18 imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in 19 writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later 20 of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and 21 (2) final judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, 22 remands, trials, or reviews of this action, including the time limits for filing any motions 23 or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

24       5.     DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

25            5.1     Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.
26          Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this 27 Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies 28 under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for protection

1 only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that 2 qualify – so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for 3 which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this 4 Order.

5 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that 6 are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., 7 to unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process or to impose 8 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the Designating Party to 9 sanctions.

10 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it 11 designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must 12 promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

13 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 14 Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 15 ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Order 16 must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

17 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

18 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but 19 excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the 20 Producing Party affix the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page that contains 21 protected material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 22 protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., 23 by making appropriate markings in the margins).

24 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for 25 inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has 26 indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and 27 before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed 28 “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants

1 copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or portions 2 thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified
3 documents, the Producing Party must affix the “CONFIDENTIAL” legend to each page 4 that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page 5 qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected 6 portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

7                 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that 8 the Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, 9 or other proceeding, all protected testimony.

10                 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any 11 other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of 12 the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend 13 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant 14 protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected 15 portion(s).

16                 5.3     Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent 17 failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the 18 Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon 19 timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to 20 assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

21                 6.     CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

22                 6.1     Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a 23 designation of confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating 24 Party’s confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial 25 unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the 26 litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by 27 electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

1           6.2     Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute 2 resolution process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and 3 describing the basis for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has 4 been made, the written notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being 5 made in accordance with this specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties shall 6 attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must begin the process by conferring 7 directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) 8 within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must 9 explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and 10 must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to 11 reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the 12 basis for the chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of 13 the challenge process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or 14 establishes that the Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and confer 15 process in a timely manner.

16           6.3     Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without 17 court intervention, the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain 18 confidentiality under Civil Local Rule 141.1 within 21 days of the initial notice of 19 challenge or within 14 days of the parties agreeing that the meet and confer process will 20 not resolve their dispute, whichever is earlier. Each such motion must be accompanied by 21 a competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer 22 requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph. Failure by the Designating Party to 23 make such a motion including the required declaration within 21 days (or 14 days, if 24 applicable) shall automatically waive the confidentiality designation for each challenged 25 designation. In addition, the Challenging Party may file a motion challenging a 26 confidentiality designation at any time if there is good cause for doing so, including a 27 challenge to the designation of a deposition transcript or any portions thereof. Any 28 motion brought pursuant to this provision must be accompanied by a competent

1 declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer 2 requirements imposed by the preceding paragraph.

3           The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the 4 Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 5 harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the 6 Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived the 7 confidentiality designation by failing to file a motion to retain confidentiality as described 8 above, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of protection 9 to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the court rules on the 10 challenge.

11       7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

12       7.1     Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 13 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case 14 only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected 15 Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions 16 described in this Order. When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must 17 comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

18           Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a 19 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons 20 authorized under this Order.

21       7.2     Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise 22 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party 23 may disclose any information or item designated "CONFIDENTIAL" only to:

24           (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as 25 employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to 26 disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment 27 and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

(b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(d) the court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.

(g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as "CONFIDENTIAL," that Party must:

(a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

(b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or

1 order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this 2 Stipulated Protective Order; and

3           (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by 4 the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

5           If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the 6 subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as 7 “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or 8 order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The 9 Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of 10 its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions should be construed as 11 authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive 12 from another court.

13 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED
14           IN THIS LITIGATION

15           (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-16 Party in this action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information produced by 17 Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief 18 provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a 19 Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

20           (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a 21 Non-Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an 22 agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party’s confidential information, 23 then the Party shall:

24           (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some 25 or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a Non-26 Party;

1                             (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated Protective 2 Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific 3 description of the information requested; and 4                             (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-Party.

5                             (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court 6 within 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving 7 Party may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery 8 request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not 9 produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality 10 agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court. Absent a court order 11 to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in 12 this court of its Protected Material.

13 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

14                             If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed 15 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 16 Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing 17 the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve 18 all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to 19 whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request 20 such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" 21 that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

22 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE
23                             PROTECTED MATERIAL

24                             When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain 25 inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the 26 obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 27 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be 28 established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior privilege

1 review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the parties reach 2 an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or information covered by 3 the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the parties may incorporate their 4 agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted to the court.

5 12. MISCELLANEOUS

6 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any 7 person to seek its modification by the court in the future.

8 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this 9 Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing 10 or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated 11 Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in 12 evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

13 12.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the 14 Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested 15 persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material. A 16 Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local 17 Rules 141 and 141.1. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court 18 order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant to Civil 19 Local Rule 141 and 141.1, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that 20 the Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise 21 entitled to protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected 22 Material under seal pursuant to Civil Local Rules 141 and/or 141.1 is denied by the court, 23 then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public record pursuant to Civil 24 Local Rule 141 and/or 141.1 unless otherwise instructed by the court.

1       13. FINAL DISPOSITION

2           Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 4, 3 each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy 4 such material. As used in this subdivision, “all Protected Material” includes all copies, 5 abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of 6 the Protected Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the 7 Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the 8 same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies 9 (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed 10 and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, 11 compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the 12 Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an 13 archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, 14 legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney 15 work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain 16 Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material 17 remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION).

EXHIBIT A

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND

3 I, _____ [print or type full name], of 4 _____ [print or type full address], declare under penalty of perjury that I 5 have read in its entirety and understand the Stipulated Protective Order that was issued by 6 the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California on [date] in the case 7 of Shannen Vazquez v. Kohl's, Inc., 2:22-cv-00735-JAM-JDP. I agree to comply with 8 and to be bound by all the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order and I understand and 9 acknowledge that failure to so comply could expose me to sanctions and punishment in 10 the nature of contempt. I solemnly promise that I will not disclose in any manner any 11 information or item that is subject to this Stipulated Protective Order to any person or 12 entity except in strict compliance with the provisions of this Order.

13 I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for 14 the Eastern District of California for the purpose of enforcing the terms of this Stipulated 15 Protective Order, even if such enforcement proceedings occur after termination of this 16 action.

17 I hereby appoint _____ [print or type full name] of 18 _____ [print or type full address and telephone 19 number] as my California agent for service of process in connection with this action or 20 any proceedings related to enforcement of this Stipulated Protective Order.
